FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

US SENATOR AND REPRESENTATIVE IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Q: Why is it important to vote for your U.S. senator and your representative?

It's not enough to simply elect Kamala Harris and Tim Walz. If they win the White House, they will need majorities in both the U.S. Senate and the U.S. House of Representatives to move our country forward.

The party that wins a majority of seats in the House of Representatives gets to name the Speaker of the House, and that individual has a lot of power to decide what bills get voted on and how the House conducts its business. The House is also responsible for approving the federal budget and debt limit.

Among other powers, a Senate majority grants the power to approve judges who are appointed by the President, including any Supreme Court Justices the President may name.

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Q: Why is it important to vote for your New York State Senator?

It is the duty of the person elected as state senator to represent your interests on the local level, and to introduce and vote on laws that will improve your daily life. It is important that the person you elect is in-line with your values and priorities.

As an example, our current state senator, James Skoufis, wrote and worked to pass a new state law that allows small family-owned cideries and breweries to ship their products to customers, including customers out of state. Laws like this have significant impact on local businesses here in Warwick.

NEW YORK STATE SUPREME COURT JUSTICES

Q: Why are State Supreme Court Justices important? What do they do?

New York State's court terminology confuses a lot of people. In every other state (and at the federal level) the Supreme Court is the highest appellate court. In New York, that is the Court of Appeals. What New York calls a "Supreme Court Justice" in most states is known as a judge. They do not hear appeals unless named to the Appellate Division by the Governor.

NEW YORK STATE SUPREME COURT JUSTICES (continued)

New York State Supreme Court Justices serve 14-year terms, presiding over criminal and civil cases. The 9th District includes Dutchess, Orange, Putnam, Rockland, and Westchester Counties. They are required by law to retire at age 70, but may serve up to age 76 at the discretion of the Office of Court Administration.

Q: Who are the candidates for State Supreme Court Justice in the 9th District?

Below is a summary of the ten candidates for New York State Supreme Court Justice. We have included information from the candidates' campaign websites and from the Board of Elections, specifically regarding their legal and/or judicial experience.
